| | Linguistic Annotation |
|---|---|
| Description | <ul><li>Advanced topics on Palaeography.</li><li>Descriptive logic of handwritten texts.</li><li>Classification and organization of handwritten information.</li><li>Transcription-oriented logic.</li><li>Annotation Levels and interconnection of the transcribed information.</li><li>Fundamentals of Lachmann, Stemmatics and Textual Criticism.</li><li>Annotation of transcriptions, morphology, syntax and semantics of handwritten (scientific and literary) texts.</li><li>Introduction to XML– DTD – XML Schema.</li><li>TEI, Epidoc.</li><li>Annotation of Handwritten Information and Typographical Information.</li></ul> |
| Learning Outcomes | After the course the student will be able to<ul><li>to transcribe and compare manuscripts</li><li>to create critical editions of texts</li><li>organize and manipulate text corpora</li><li>annotate and encode texts utilizing existing standards and tools for encoding (morphological, syntactic, semantic)</li></ul> |